4. Orientation programme on the functioning of Internal Complaints Committee

An orientation programme on the functioning of the Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) was conducted on 13th October 2022 at 11:30 am in the New Seminar Hall. The programme was attended by the ICC members, Heads of Departments, teachers, and administrative staff of the college.

The resource person for the programme was Advt. Vincent Alex, Vice Chairman of Mannanam Janasabha Community Development Council, Kottayam, and ICC Member of the college. His extensive experience and knowledge in the field provided valuable insights into the functioning of the ICC and its importance in ensuring a safe and respectful work environment.

The programme covered various aspects of the ICC's role and responsibilities, including handling complaints of sexual harassment, conducting inquiries, and ensuring confidentiality and impartiality throughout the process. Advt. Vincent Alex emphasized the need for sensitizing the college community about gender issues and creating awareness about the ICC's role in addressing them.

The Q & A session allowed participants to raise questions and seek clarifications on the ICC's functioning. The programme enhanced the participants understanding of the role of ICC in maintaining a safe and respectful work environment.
