Research and Innovation Ecosystem

Research and Innovation Ecosystem

The research ecosystem at Kuriakose Elias College is a cornerstone of academic excellence, fostering a culture of innovation, entrepreneurship, and scholarly inquiry. The college's commitment to research is evident in its numerous achievements, including faculty PhDs, publications, and research guides. A robust research culture is essential for academic excellence, as it encourages critical thinking, creativity, and problem-solving, while enhancing the quality of faculty and preparing students for an ever-changing world.

By prioritizing research, the college demonstrates its commitment to developing faculty expertise, continuous learning, and addressing societal challenges. The research culture empowers students to become informed, engaged, and entrepreneurial leaders, while elevating the college's reputation and attracting top talent and funding opportunities. As Kuriakose Elias College continues to nurture its research culture, it will remain at the forefront of innovation, entrepreneurship, and academic distinction.

New PhDs Produced

The achievement of 8 faculty members acquiring PhDs between 2018-2023 is a testament to the college's dedication to faculty development and its commitment to research-oriented teaching. This milestone not only enhances the academic profile of the faculty but also significantly contributes to the college's research ecosystem.

Interdisciplinary Research Journal

"New Numbers and Letters" is a multidisciplinary journal that bridges the gap between diverse fields of study, including Science, Engineering, Literature, Commerce, Management, and Humanities. By publishing peer-reviewed articles, the journal facilitates the exchange of ideas and research findings among experts from various disciplines, fostering interdisciplinary collaboration and knowledge sharing. Its purpose is to provide a platform for authors to communicate their research to a broader audience, encouraging the application of theories and methods from one field to another, and promoting innovative thinking and problem-solving across disciplines.

By consolidating research activities in different fields, the journal facilitates the discovery of novel connections and relationships, supports the development of new methodologies, and contributes to the advancement of knowledge and solution of complex, real-world problems. Ultimately, it aims to become a premier platform for interdisciplinary research, driving innovation and collaboration across academic boundaries.

Innovation

Kuriakose Elias College has established a robust innovation ecosystem by setting up the Innovation and Entrepreneurship Development Cell (IEDC), Institution's Innovation Council (IIC), and YIP cells. These initiatives aim to promote innovation and entrepreneurship among faculty members, students, alumni, and the public, encouraging them to develop unique ideas and solutions.

The Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) was officially established on August 27, 2020, with the mission of creating a vibrant innovation and entrepreneurship ecosystem. IIC aims to develop indigenous and sustainable solutions to address societal needs by synthesizing creative energy and promoting start-ups and entrepreneurial ventures.

In recognition of its efforts, Kuriakose Elias College has been selected as a Mentor IIC institute in the 'Mentor-Mentee Scheme' for the IIC 6.0 (AY 2023-24) calendar period by the Ministry of Innovation Cell, Ministry of Education, Government of India. This distinction acknowledges the college's leadership in driving innovation and entrepreneurship.

Furthermore, several faculty members from Kuriakose Elias College have been recognized as Innovation Ambassadors under the Ministry of Human Resource Development's (MHRD) Innovation Cell. This initiative aligns with the New Education Policy (NEP) 2020, which emphasizes the importance of creativity, critical thinking, and innovation in education. As Innovation Ambassadors, these faculty members will play a pivotal role in inspiring and mentoring students to develop innovative ideas and solutions, integrating innovation and entrepreneurship into the curriculum, fostering collaborations with industry and startups, and creating a supportive ecosystem for innovation and entrepreneurship on campus.

This achievement reinforces Kuriakose Elias College's position as a hub for innovation and entrepreneurship, demonstrating its dedication to preparing students for success in an ever-changing world. By fostering a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship, the college is empowering students to become creative problem-solvers, critical thinkers, and entrepreneurs who can drive positive change in society.
